Eighth International Meeting on Indigenous Women's Health

Stronger Together: Resilience and Healing

March 13–15, 2024
Sheraton Uptown | Albuquerque, NM

Co-presented by

Eighth International Meeting on Indigenous Women's Health

The International Meeting on Indigenous Women's Health, held every two years, focuses on innovative clinical care models and community-based public health approaches for Indigenous women and their families and communities. Co-presented by The American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists and The University of New Mexico School of Medicine's Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology, this three-day meeting will be held March 13-15, 2024 at the Sheraton Uptown Hotel (2600 Louisiana Blvd. NE, Albuquerque, NM 87110).

We invite you to participate in this event. The meeting will be CME-accredited and comply with all ACCME standards and will provide an opportunity for community members, healers, Elders, Knowledge Holders, clinicians, students, and others who work with Indigenous women and communities to come together to learn, share, support, and build partnerships to improve Indigenous Women's Health. Women's health pertains to all people seeking women's healthcare including trans and nonbinary people.

Included in this prospectus are details regarding various sponsorship and exhibit opportunities and the link to the online letter of agreement (required to participate).

If you have any questions, or would like more information, please contact Tisha Aldredge or Maria Lilia Vidaca at UNM Continuous Professional Learning.

Sponsorship and exhibit opportunities are limited so please contact us ASAP to secure your participation.

On behalf of the Eighth International Meeting on Indigenous Women's Health planning committee, we thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Patricia Capo, MD, FACOG
Meeting Course Director

Obstetrician/Gynecologist, Alaska Native Medical Center
IHS Deputy Chief Clinical Consultant for OB/GYN
