- Activities must be “wholly unrelated to Federal healthcare programs.”
- Exclusions are not limited to the person who is directly providing services or items. Excluded individuals in roles providing administrative services, management, IT services, etc. are also subject to this law.

Consequences

- Consequences of employing an excluded individual or using an excluded vendor include Civil Monetary Penalties (CMP) and the possibility of losing the ability to bill Medicare and Medicaid.
- CMP up to $10,000 for each item or service furnished and listed on a claim submitted for Federal reimbursement.
- In addition to the CMP, an assessment of 3x the amount claimed can be imposed along with program exclusion.
