Guest Speakers

Narcan and OD prevention training, Mary Blasi

- On Thursday, April 13 from 2-3pm in DOM 3740 there is a one-hour training with the NMDOH on how to administer Narcan and prevent overdose. The one-hour training is broken down into a 30-minute presentation and a 30-minute hands-on training. IPE credit is available in the interprofessional category.

Open Table Discussion with Student Affairs

- PATS has a new app and will send out an email about it soon. They are replacing the old “where’s my shuttle” app with a new one with live GPS of shuttles.
- Website: <https://studentaffairs.unm.edu/> (a new website is coming).
- Campus safety is going to improve lighting in G and Q lots around the end of May.
- Best forms of communication for student affairs to reach students: bulletin board on website and announcement section, teams, etc.
- RR students propose to have more equal access and ask what is being done to integrate it into the UNM community more (building access with badges, lactation room)
 - Response: lack of personnel is the main obstacle. SRMC is main overseer of RR campus.

North Campus Food Pantry Update, Emily Alden

- We have placed donation boxes around campus.
- Todd is working to get us an index number to receive monetary donations
- We are working out the logistics of using HSSC budget money to stock the pantry.
- The Menstrual Equity Pilot Program will be adding a basket of hygiene products to the pantry and the Student Nursing Association has also reached out to provide period products for the pantry.

- HSC Wellness has reached out to promote the pantry and host a raffle to increase donations to the pantry.

Steering Committee, Michael Bennett

- Proposed amendment to the constitution (Article 4, Section 1). We want to put in writing what the HSSC executive committee already does, act as liaison between the Health Sciences Center and the council of representatives.
- Motion to amend the constitution is passed
